

Press release: Cassady Southern releases country anthem 'On the road'

Thursday 7 March 2024

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cassady Southern has released her first track for 2024, a country rock number called 'On the road'.

Cassady has embraced a passion for country music with this latest track which tells an age-old story of a wandering musician and the lure of the open road.

Cassady Southern continues to prove that she is "Little Miss Versatile". Her new song 'On The Road' is a body movin', country rockin', little gem; it will surely gain her an army of new fans from amongst country music enthusiasts. This song is a lively and lovely expression, of the urge that drives those restless souls who always want to see what is over the horizon.

Alan Edwards (Musical Australiana) 104.7 Gippsland FM

'On the road' was recorded at Studios 301 in Sydney and follows on from the rockier 'What's going on?' which was released in December 2023.

The track features the band Cassady Southern and the Party, made up of Rob Drummond on lead guitar, JD on drums, John Montgomery on bass and BVs, and Dai Nettle on keys, harmonica and BVs.
